Dear Baker Heights family,

I need to get something off my chest. We are all aware that our lives as Christians are on display in this world. The way we live, the way we react, the way we speak influences our testimony as Christ-followers. Many of us read posts and even share posts on Facebook or other social media that are very political in nature. We live in a free country, where every citizen is free to have the political view that he or she wants and is free to express themselves as they wish.

Unfortunately, as our country has become more and more polarized over politics, many of those posts have become very derogatory and even nasty. Certain politicians and certain political parties have become the brunt of insults, putdowns and even downright vulgar descriptions. I have even heard some say that you cannot be a “true” Christian and belong to certain political parties. That all may be daily routine for those who do not claim Christ. But for those of us who do, posting or sharing such things basically says to those people “I don’t love you, I don’t care about you, and I hate all that you stand for.” In doing so we not only shame the Savior who died for us, but we destroy the witness that we want to have in the lives of people around us.

All that said, can we not strive to be more careful in what we say, read and post, especially in this election year? Can we strive to be discerning as Christ followers should, in what we say so that our love for one another and for others, regardless of their political leanings, can be seen by the world?

“By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” John 13:35
