Plan, Then Trust God’s Guidance

Our experiences in life teach us one thing – very few things in our life work out as we plan. Consider how Paul’s faith made it easy for him to deal with these events:

For many years, Paul wanted go to Rome. He had made plans for this to happen, but it just was not happening (Romans 1:13). Later, he wrote to the church in Rome and told them of his plans (Romans 15:22-24)

- He would first go to Jerusalem to see the church.
- He would deliver the contributions from the Gentile churches to the poor saints.
- He would then go to Rome to spend time with them.
- He would then go to Spain to preach there.

Paul’s plans changed drastically. The Jewish mob attacked him and any hope of his leaving for Rome was crushed. For over two years, he was imprisoned in Jerusalem and Caesarea. He finally went to Rome – but only after he appealed for and was granted permission to be tried before Caesar.

Look at all that happened because Paul’s plans were changed:

- He was able to preach to the Sanhedrin, the Jewish ruling body in Jerusalem.
- He was able to preach to Felix and Festus.
- He was able to preach and almost convert Agrippa, the king of the Jews.
- He was able to appear before and preach to Nero.
- He was able to introduce Christianity to the powerful palace guards – who in Augustus’ days numbered 10,000 men (Philippians 1:13).

Make your plans, like Paul did, then leave all that happens in the hands of God. Consider Paul’s original plans, and then see that, by God’s design, something far better happened. Above all, live by faith and trust God for all the unknown future!

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
