“Greet one another with a holy . . . fist bump?”

Our news feeds are inundated lately with one single topic: the coronavirus and it’s spread throughout the world. World-wide panic has broken out. Stock markets are crashing. One by one nations are finding themselves overwhelmed by what one reporter called “decision fatigue.” We are growing weary of the whole thing and would like to get on with our lives

There has been a lot of blame-throwing (kind of like flame-throwing only with words) going on throughout the world. Nations try to tie the blame for the virus on other nations. Political parties use the virus and the ensuing panic to throw darts of blame at each other. Travel restrictions are in place and will surely increase. There are shortages. There is a lot of “panic-buying.” People are panicking. People are afraid. People, even Christian people are looking for answers in the chaos.

In all of this, people of faith are called to show our world how those who claim to “live by faith and not by sight” respond in such times. The fact is, we are facing a crisis. We are facing what the WHO has called a pandemic. It is entirely possible that some of us will be personally affected by the virus. How will we respond in this testing of our faith? None of these things we have looked at form our identity as God’s children. As our world scrambles for some solid footing, God’s people remember words like:

“Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.” (Psalm 20:7)

We must be realistic. We should take measures to protect ourselves and others. But above all else, we must be the trusting, faithful people who know that our God will do what is best and will see us through whatever comes!

“Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails, and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will be joyful in God my Savior.” (Habakkuk 3:17)
