ENCOURAGE ONE ANOTHER ALL THE MORE...

I got a chance this last week to watch a couple of football games. One of the games I watched had just a small group of fans, maybe a fourth of what the 80,000 capacity stadium normally holds. The other game I watched had no fans at all. In fact they actually played fan noise from the stadium speaker to make it seem somewhat normal. Maybe it was just me, but I think I could notice a difference on how the players performed. Even if it is a small group, having people cheer and encourage you helps. That is why home field advantage is such a big deal. Even after securing a place in the playoffs, teams will play hard to have that home field advantage. Try to think back to a time you personally were playing a sport and heard someone cheering you on from the crowd. It is almost like you can feel yourself start to play better.

Words of encouragement affect our lives whether they are shouted in a stadium or given to us written down on a card. Words of encouragement can mean the difference between whether someone "stays in the game" or gives up. Paul wrote in Thessalonians 5:13 that we should "comfort each other and edify one another."

There are lots of avenues that you can use to pass on words of encouragement. There are the yellow cards in the pews, you can use to write an encouraging note to someone – it will even get mailed for you. You can speak to them either in person or on the phone, and most importantly, you can always encourage others by remembering them in prayer. Many people are going through hard times and some positive words shared by their Christian brothers and sisters may make a big impact. Let us encourage one another all the more as the day approaches. (Hebrews 10:25)
