IS IT RIGHT FOR US TO BE ANGRY?

Brothers and sisters, we are in a scary place as a nation. The anger that is being exhibited every day and in seemingly increasing levels, has gotten out of hand. Anger is being stoked like the wildfires in the west and into a fury that is dividing us. It will continue to divide us racially, it will continue to divide us politically, and it will continue to divide us spiritually, but only if we let it. If we continue along our present path, we are in for increased anger, violence, and hatred toward one another.

I read in one paper:

the more partisan people become, the more likely they are to rationalize violence against those they don't agree with, to experience Schadenfreude (a German word for finding joy in the misfortune of others) or moral disinterest when they see an opponent get attacked, and even to endorse physical assaults on other groups.

Most Americans and hopefully, all Christ-followers, stand against the violence and the madness that is so widespread in our country these days.

I know the feeling of seeing an "opponent" or someone I don't agree with "get what they deserve." The feelings of recompense and revenge are hard to get out of our system. I hate the way news channels and politicians fuel our anger and stoke our hatred, but I still find myself tuning in. I am angered by the posts I read in social media, but I am still tempted to read on.

Our anger and our fears of where it will lead have become a sickness that is affecting all facets of our lives. It is dampening true patriotism, affecting our relationships with others, making us sick physically and worst of all, it is weakening our spiritual resolve to be the light of Christ in our very dark world.

"In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." Matthew 5:16
