EEM – “EASTERN EUROPEAN MISSIONS”

Our EEM mission is to share God's Word with the people of Eastern Europe and beyond, and seeking to educate and inspire God's servants in this work.

In 1961, a mission team of six young couples moved to Vienna, Austria to assist a missionary (Bob Hare) – but they began to hear calls from Eastern Europe: They started smuggling Bibles through the Iron Curtain. This continued until 1989 when "The Wall" came down. These countries are now asking for Bibles and Biblically-based education materials. In 1996 the Russian Minister of Education requested The Newcomer's Guide to the Bible be written and printed in Russian. Since 1996, Bibles are now placed in ALL public schools in the state of Tomsk, Russia. Schools in the Ukraine have Bibles and Biblically based teaching materials in all of their schools. Partnering with Mission Ukraine, EEM appears in nationwide television broadcasts, resulting in hundreds of new churches in the Ukraine.

EEM provides Bibles to the people of Eastern European countries in their own languages. What began as a perilous leap of faith through the Iron Curtain by a small but brave group of missionaries, gradually unveiled itself to be part of God's amazing plan to provide Bibles and Bible-based materials in over 22 languages to 30 nations - all free of charge. Over 4.5 million public school students in Ukraine and 100,000 Muslim refugees have received God's Word and the numbers are still growing!

In 2016 - for the first time ever - EEM provided Bibles in Arabic and Farsi to refugees flooding into Europe along the refugee highway into Greece and other countries in Central Europe. It seemed God was using the turbulence in the middle east to create a unique window of opportunity to share the Gospel with people groups who were previously enslaved in Islamic influence for generations.

Partnership is at the heart of everything we do at EEM. Both financial partners and distribution partners are vital components of our efforts to get Bibles into the hands of people in Eastern Europe. Whether it's a partnership through sharing personal resources or collaboration through global distribution of our materials in ministry, both play essential roles in the continuation of providing millions of people access to God's Word. We couldn't accomplish all this without our partnerships with individual donors and congregations throughout the world.
