WORTHY MINISTRIES

CENTRAL TEXAS CHILDREN'S HOME

House Parents (Central Texas Children's Home)
The Central Texas Children's Home is looking for a set of missionaries! We are looking for a Christian couple to live on the campus located in Buda, TX, just south of Austin, and care for children ages 5-18. This job is best suited for those couples that are genuinely interested in doing direct ministry work with a group of young people that have been abused, neglected, and abandoned and are unable to live at home or with their families.

For inquiries, contact Ray Crowder, Executive Director at ray@ctch.org or 512-243-1386

CHEROKEE HOME FOR CHILDREN

"The mission of Cherokee Home for Children is to engage children in education, community, and church-related activities to positively influence their lives. With the love and guidance of wholesome, dedicated people, the children placed in our care can be prepared for life in the community, the nation, and the life hereafter."

Their website furthers their mission by providing ways for you to learn more and to get involved. You can make a difference! Your support is needed and very appreciated.

WHAT ARE YOU THANKFUL FOR?

I hope all of you enjoyed a meaningful time of celebrating the Thanksgiving holiday! All of us celebrate in ways that are customary for our own families, don't we? One family deep fries their turkey, while another family enjoys smoked turkey. Some have dressing, others do not. Some snooze in the afternoon, watch football games or take a long walk. Still others sit around the table and talk about things they are thankful for. Whatever the traditions, Thanksgiving has always been a time of family and friends. It is a time of family celebration and we all could use some of that right now! Hopefully, the disappointments of the year have not dampened the sense of thanksgiving that should be a daily celebration in the lives of God's people. We have so much to be thankful for! We can be thankful for our redemption through Christ, our adoption into the family of God, our hope of deliverance from this world to spend an eternity with God and the joy of making this journey with our church family!

Let us never be guilty of allowing the setbacks of this year to take away from focusing on what God has done for us.

31 What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? 33 Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. 34 Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written: For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered. 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
