THE SMELL OF BREAD

To make sense of this article, read II Corinthians 2:14-17. Say you are walking down the street and you smell this wonderful smell. You think "Wow! That's a great smell! Hey, that's fresh baked bread. I wonder where it's coming from?" Well, you keep walking down the street, and the smell gets stronger. You start looking around to find the location of this wonderful smell. As you are walking down the road, the smell gets less intense the further you go. Obviously, you passed the source a while back. That means you are going in the wrong direction. Then, you back track and find the house with the strongest odor emanating from it. You go to the door and knock. The Owner of the House says "come on in." That wonderful smell is stronger, more tantalizing. The smell is almost making you hungry. The Owner invites you to explore the House. As you walk around, the smell gets less intense toward the back of the House. As you go back to the living room, the smell gets stronger. It is in the kitchen where the odor is the strongest! You found the source! As you stand in the kitchen, the warmth and smell is so delightful so Home-like. The Owner says, "Come sit with Me and eat the Bread I've prepared for you." This is a weird article. Is it really? God meant for us to be together to share in the Bread of Life as one Family. In the not-too-distant past, we have not been able to share that together as often as we would like. Now, we are able to. We can worship God anywhere at any time but being together is better. Isn't the most wonderful place to share the Bread in the Kitchen? Please take every opportunity to come into the Kitchen to be warmed, comforted, and fed.
