WHAT'S IN A NAME?

It is always interesting to meet new people. I like to hear their names, ask them where they are from and make connections that neither of us knew that we had. As we learn the names of those new people, there is an opportunity for our relationship to grow past the "surface" level. Typically, when we can call someone's name, we know them better than when we just know each other as "that fellow with the bald spot", or that "lady with the red hat."

In the past couple of weeks, our Sunday morning sermons have focused on our prayer lives and more specifically, how we address God. Last Sunday we looked at several of those names, which are used in scripture to describe the character of God. Getting to know God involves getting to know his character. Knowing the various names that describe him is a great place to begin! Though there are many more names in the Bible than those we have covered in the past weeks, here are the ones we looked at.

YAWEH – anytime we read LORD in scripture.

I AM – God's eternal, unchanging nature. I was, I am and I will always be (Exodus 3:13-15)

YAHWEH SHAMMA – "The LORD is there." (Ezekiel 48:35; Matthew 1:23)

YAHWEH TSIDKENU – "The LORD our righteous savior." (Jeremiah 23:6; 1 Corinthians 1:30)

YAHWEH M'KADDESH – "The LORD who makes you holy." (Ezekiel 37:28; Leviticus 20:8)

YAHWEH ROHI – "The LORD is my shepherd." (Psalms 23:1; Isaiah 40:9-11; John 10:11)

YAHWEH JIREH – "The LORD will provide." (Genesis 22:12; Philippians 4:19)

YAHWEH SHALOM – "The LORD is peace." (Judges 6:24; Ephesians 2:12-14)

YAHWEH NISSI – "The LORD is my (victory) banner." (Exodus 17:15; 1 Corinthians 15:57,58)

What a mighty and incredible God we serve and this is the God that we can also call "Dad." What a blessing it is to have the opportunity to communicate with him every day and to know that he hears us!

"Those who know your name trust in you, for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you." Psalm. 9:10
