“VATT ARE YOU SINKING ABOUT?”

Have you ever found yourself in a boat that was taking on water? It can be a frightening experience, especially if you are in deep water. A young German coast guard trainee was left in the control room while his teacher went out for coffee. Suddenly the radio squawked: “Mayday! Mayday! We are sinking!” The young trainee, his English comprehension lacking, did not know how to respond. Again, he heard: “Mayday! Mayday! We are sinking!” to which he haltingly responded: “Uhh . . . Hallo, dis is da German Coast Guard. Vatt are you sinking about?”

The story may be comical, but the truth is, the young man did not understand the language of those in need and could not grasp the seriousness of their situation.

In the fallen world in which we live, many people, even those of us in the family of God, find ourselves “taking on water”. We find ourselves overwhelmed by the storms around us, and often, we cry out for help in times of discouragement. As brothers and sisters, are we attuned to the language of discouragement? Can we hear and understand the language of those around us who need our help, be it an encouraging word, a tender touch, or a comforting offer to help. What a blessing it is to know that we serve a God who is called “the God of all comfort”! God comforts in many ways. He comforts through scripture. He comforts through His Spirit who lives in us. But he also comforts by using those whom he has comforted as tools to comfort and encourage others. Are we attuned to the language of those around us? Are we willing to do what we can to encourage and comfort them?

“Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.” 2 Cor. 1:3-4
