BRIDGING THE GAP

Joshua and Caleb led Israel at the time the people seem to have been the most dedicated to the Lord they ever were, but just shortly after that “there arose another generation after them who did not know the Lord and the work that he had done for Israel.” The idea of a generation gap, a chasm that separates the beliefs and behaviors belonging to members of two different generations, is nothing new. Not only do we see that happening today, but we have seen it throughout history. So, as a church, how do we remain people of “one Lord, one faith, one baptism” when the generations seem so different? Over the next few weeks, we will be looking at God’s instruction to the Israelites (Deut. 6) and how they could have prevented this gap. We will look at how we can apply those principles today so that we are not raising a generation that does not know God and the good things he has done for us.
