GOOD MORNING

Each of our kids have been different. One thing about our youngest is that she doesn't like to hold your hand. She either wants to be carried or to be able to roam free. It has been hard to get across to her that there are times when my hands are too full to carry her, but it is not safe enough for her to be able to roam free, whether it be crossing the parking lot or a store full of breakables. So that makes it even more touching when she decides, without prompting, to hold my hand. It is like she is saying, "This is my daddy and I want to be with him." I wrote about this feeling eight years ago when I first noticed my oldest child doing the same thing. And I still can't help but think of the imagery we are given in Micah 6:6-8.

⁶With what shall I come before the LORD
and bow down before the exalted God?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?
⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousand rivers of olive oil?
Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
⁸He has shown you, O mortal, what is good.
And what does the LORD require of you?
To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God. Micah 6:6-8

When I read walking humbly with our God, I picture a child walking holding their father's hand. When we walk hand in hand with our God, we are less likely to get lost or into trouble and are more likely to obey. We need to make sure we are living in such a way that says we are God's children and we want to be with him.
