ARE YOU A CANDIDATE FOR HEART SURGERY?

I have a good friend who preaches for a congregation in Switzerland. He was born with a congenital heart valve defect. He knew at some point in his adult life he would need surgery to correct the defect. That time came just a couple of years ago and he searched for a surgeon who specialized in heart valve replacement. The name that kept coming to the top was Dr. Carrel. It turned out that Dr. Carrel is one of the best heart surgeons in the world. Dr. Carrel is so renowned that it is almost impossible for "normal folks" to be accepted for surgery with him. His services are too expensive and are in high demand. It seems that in addition to being a great heart surgeon, Dr. Carrel is also an outspoken believer in Jesus Christ. My friend learned that Dr. Carrel was a believer and wrote the doctor a letter stating that he would feel much better knowing that his heart was laid bare in the hands of someone who believed in God. Dr. Carrel agreed to do the surgery. After a successful surgery and a lengthy recovery, my friend is back preaching for the congregation in Zurich, Switzerland.

There is something seriously intimidating about your heart being laid bare in the hands of another. There is no room to hide. There are no corners that the doctor can't see into. It is a feeling of complete exposure and vulnerability. It is interesting that the Hebrew writer (4:12-13) also speaks about a heart surgery that each of us must undergo. The surgeon, however, is not a man, but God himself. God's word he says, cuts deep. It exposes us for what we really are. It leaves no corner hidden, no secrets concealed, and no thoughts or attitudes untouched. I would trust Dr. Carrel to do surgery on my heart if it were to come to that. Do I trust God to make the necessary repairs and corrections in my heart to make me a better child of his?
