GOOD MORNING

Even though I clutch my blankets and groan when the alarm rings each morning, thank you, Lord, that I can hear. There are those who are deaf.

Even though I keep my eyes tightly closed against the morning light as long as possible, thank you, Lord, that I can see. There are many who are blind.

Even though I huddle in my bed and put off the physical effort of rising, thank you, Lord, that I have the strength to rise. There are many who are bedfast.

Even though the first hour of my day is hectic, when socks are lost, toast is burned, tempers are short, thank you, Lord, for my family. There are many who are lonely.

Even though our table never looks like the pictures in the magazines and the menu is at times unbalanced. Thank you, Lord, for the food we have. There are many who are hungry.

Even though the routine of my job is often monotonous, thank you, Lord, for the opportunity to work. There are many who have no work.

Thank you, Lord, for the gift of life.

-Unknown

I thought this was fitting with the upcoming holiday. The holiday season can emphasize whether you are an optimist or a pessimist. An optimist sees this time of year as a time of thanksgiving, family, gifts, and the opportunity to give. The pessimist might view this time of year as a time for business, financial strain, stress, travel, and bad weather. Philippians 4:8 says,

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

As followers of Christ this Holiday season, let's make sure we don't get caught up in the materialism and frustration this time of year sometimes brings. Instead, let's focus on those things that are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, admirable, excellent, and praiseworthy. Let us bring praise to God our Father in everything that we do.
