IS LIFE REALLY WORTH LIVING?

The question is real. It's been asked by millions through the years. You and I both can acknowledge that it is real. You may have even asked the question yourself. Many slip through severe depression isolating themselves from life. Literally millions upon millions turn to drugs and alcohol because they think that life is not worth living.

Please know that life is worth living if we HELP OTHERS. We are truly happy when we are involved in helping others. Too often we live only for ourselves. Then when life turns a bit topsy-turvy, we become unhappy. There is no doubt that if life is only for ourselves, then life will let us down. Remember Cain's famous questions? "Am I my brother's keeper?" The answer is still YES! We must be about the business of bearing each other other's burdens. Be reminded of Galatians 6:10 - "Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers."

Emily Dickinson wrote so well:

If I can stop one heart from breaking, I shall not live in vain.

If I can ease one life from aching OR Cool one pain, OR help one fainting robin into his nest again,
I shall not live in vain.

Romans 14:7 - "For none of us lives for ourselves alone, and none of us dies for ourselves alone."

To make life worth living we need to help someone each day of our lives. When we are helping others, we are helping ourselves- and nothing is greater than helping someone else come to Jesus. What a great goal of 2022. As the old hymn says "Lead me to some soul today. O Teach me Lord just what to say. Friends of mine are lost in sin and cannot find their way."

As the wise man Solomon said, "...He who wins souls is wise." (Proverbs 11:30)

May God help us to be led to one soul in 2022.
