"PRAY FOR US!"

This past week our screens and our news feeds have filled us with pictures and with descriptions of suffering. We have all heard of war. We have read about it. Some of us have experienced it firsthand. All that said, this week has brought much of the world to its knees with images of destruction, suffering and great need. Last Sunday, we spent time praying for the situation in the Ukraine. We remembered to pray for the leaders of countries involved in the conflict. We prayed for the people who are suffering in the midst of this senseless conflict. We prayed for Christian brothers and sisters who huddle together in cellars and subway stations, praising God and sharing their faith with fellow-sufferers. We prayed for refugees who are fleeing the country.

Please remember to pray. Please remember to pray about the situation daily. Pray for the intervention of our great God. Pray for the safety of the Ukrainian people. Pray for the leaders involved in the conflict and for all world leaders (1 Timothy 2). Pray that our great God can open doors of opportunity for service and for evangelism today, tomorrow and in the coming years. I mentioned on Sunday that opportunities to help financially would arise. Since Sunday, several opportunities have been presented to us. I want to share some of them with you.

1. EEM: Baker Heights will collect and send any checks or money donated to EEM, which will specifically target humanitarian needs in the Ukraine. You can also contribute through their website: eem.org/ukraineaid
2. Sunset International Bible Institute: Through their Global Relief Ministry, Sunset is sending funds to help with the humanitarian relief efforts in the Ukraine. You can contribute on their website: sibi.cc
3. You can also give directly to the church in the Polish city of Lodz. They are directly involved in delivering humanitarian aid to the Ukrainian refugees pouring into their country. For more information, please contact me personally.
