WHAT WOULD IT TAKE FOR YOU TO STOP LOVING YOUR FAMILY?

One time a preacher invited the children up to the front for a short children's message at the beginning of worship. He wanted to make the point that money can't buy everything. He tried to make his point clear when he asked the children, "what would you do if I said I would give you $1000 to quit loving your mom and Dad?" There was only silence. Finally, one little boy in the back of the group raised his hand. He said, "Preacher, how much would you give me to quit loving my sister?"

The preacher's question brought out a good point about families, didn't it? Often times families bicker, they fight and fuss. But when it comes down to it, we won't let anyone mess with them! Don't let anyone from outside the family say anything against them or we are quick to stand up and defend. Most of the time the family will present a united front against criticism. They say nothing unites like a common enemy. True unity is family unity, and a healthy family is a united family. I think we often fail to give our parents the praise and encouragement that they need! They have a difficult task, especially in the world that we live in right now. Parents don't have it easy! They strive every day to bring up their kids in a way that will help them to be good people, people who know God. Keeping the peace in a family, striving for this unity, sacrificing for this unity is a difficult task! But it is an individual as well as a corporate effort. As the family of God, we owe it to our families to support each other, encourage each other and do what we can to help. Are we all up to the task of making the family work? Will we stand united for the importance of the family?

"Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace." Eph. 4:2
