James 5:13-16 (NIV)

Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up. If they have sinned, they will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed.

The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.

FORGIVENESS AND BAGGAGE...

The story is told of two monks traveling across the countryside. When they came upon a woman sitting beside a river, they inquired "How may we help you?"

"I need to cross the river, and I can't," she replied. The two monks offered to carry her across the river, and proceeded to do just that. After they put her down, she thanked them and they continued on their way.

A couple of miles further down the road, one monk began to complain that his back hurt. A few miles later, he sat down on the ground and threw a pity party: "You know my back really hurts. We shouldn't have carried that woman across the river - now I'll be sore for days." The second monk responded, "That's your problem: I sat that lady down five miles ago, and you are still carrying her."

Many of us carry bitterness throughout our entire life: It is unnecessary baggage. We must learn to forgive. It will do well to remember the words of Ephesians 4:31 – "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice."

May God help us all.
