GROWING OLD

As people, we sometimes have funny concepts about growing old.
"I don't feel old. I don't feel anything until noon. Then it's time for my nap."
"Birthdays are good for you. Statistics show that the people who have the most live the longest."
Aging is an extraordinary process where you become the person you always should have been."
"Getting old is like climbing a mountain; you get a little out of breath, but the view is much better!"

We don't want to become old, but neither do we want to die young. Douglas MacArthur is quoted as saying, "Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years. People grow old only by deserting their ideals."
 We need to consider that "how" we grow old is far more important than how "old" we grow.

God wants us to grow old righteously. The Proverb writer tells us, "The silver-haired head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness" (Proverbs 16:31). May God bless the older man or woman who, day by day, grows more closely into the likeness of Christ (2 Corinthians 5:15; Galatians 2:20).

God wants us to grow old in serving Him. Luke tells us of the prophetess Anna who, at the age of 84 "...did not depart from the temple but served God with fasting and prayers night and day" (Luke 2:37). A member of the Lord's church was heard saying, "All I can do is pray." All I can do? My, how we underestimate the power of prayer in our lives! (Ephesians 6:18; Luke 18:1-8; Romans 12:12; Colossians 4:2).

God wants us to grow old trusting Him. God promised to His people, "Even to your old age I shall be the same, and even to your graying years I shall bear you! I have done it, and I shall carry you; And I shall bear you and I shall deliver you" (Isaiah 46:4).

There is no doubt that we will grow old if we continue living upon this earth (Ecclesiastes 12:1-6). However, "how" we grow old is far more important than how "old" we grow. Let us have the same attitude toward serving the Lord in our later years as Caleb, never quitting (or retiring), but asking the Lord to continue giving him more challenges ("mountains") to conquer and overcome with the Lord's help (Joshua 14:12).
