JOY, JOY, HEART IS FILLED WITH JOY!

Have you ever felt like you lost your joy? Did you ever wake up and think, "I used to be happy?" Church, Satan is well and alive! He attacks our joy by trying to make us live in a state of constant lack of peace, no security, not enough time in the day... and the list goes on. Brothers and sisters – it's time to attack back!

Satan attacks our joy through family conflict, disease, strife... you name it! People will abuse us and misunderstand us. Inflation has grabbed us by the throat on every corner, in every way imaginable. The rise of COVID has attacked us and, once again, we find ourselves running scared.

I implore you – don't let Satan steal your joy! Surround yourself with joy-filled people. Don't surround yourself with negative people. Do take responsibility for your own actions and if necessary, RISE ABOVE them. Don't blame everyone else for what is wrong in your life. Reverence the Lord. Pay attention to Proverbs 3:7-8, "Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord and shun evil. This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones."

Oh, yes...Avail yourself of Vacation Bible

School. It starts tomorrow night! What a great way to refresh the fires of love and joy in your life! And there WILL be an adult class meeting in the auditorium! Hope to see you there to share in a great time of love and joy!
