WHY WORRY?

Alarm clock didn't go off and a case of the depressed blues is headed your way. You're late for work and have a flat tire. You try to take the wife's car, but it won't start because she left the lights on. You get the jumper cables, jump it off, you're in a hurry...Blue Light Special – speeding ticket. The boss chews you out, and the wife calls, mad that she can't keep her hair appointment. It's hard to be full of joy when everything is wrecking, but if you keep your JOY, everything will work out.

Heed the words of Proverbs 17:22 – “A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.”

Church, you and I both know that worry is devastating. I wonder if we had a show of hands, how many worriers we have in our worship assembly this morning. If we are honest, we all worry a bit, but there are some people that seem to worry enough for everyone. There are some who have the gift of going down paths of worry, thinking about things that some people don't even think about let alone worry about. Things that occupy space and time in our brains.... things that probably won't even come to fruition. There are people who see life as half-empty, like Eeyore in Winnie the Pooh. Some people walk around with a rain cloud over their head... you know, the “pity-party” people. If you are one of these people, please remember the words of Philippians 4:6

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”
