CONFESSION IS GOOD FOR THE SOUL

Sin is behavior that fails to measure up to God's standards. Paul said in Romans 3:23 that we all sin and fall short of the glory of God. Fortunately, Jesus gave His life so God can overlook our sins so we can be in fellowship with Him and each other.

John speaks of this special fellowship as "walking in the light". In 1 John 1:1-5:

"This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Fellowship with God and each other depends on being willing to confess our sins to God and to each other. That's hard to do because we don't want to be embarrassed or ashamed. We don't want to disappoint or let someone down. We don't want to be vulnerable, but it has benefits for us personally and for the Lord's body.

Confession relieves our conscience of guilt and eases our burdens. It allows the holy spirit to work in our lives so our faith can grow stronger and we can be better people. It helps us grow closer. We find consolation in knowing that fellow Christians are eager to listen to each other's problems, to pray for each other, and to help each other any way possible. Confession brings healing (James 5:16). It is good for the soul.
