COME LET US BOW DOWN

After attending church one Sunday morning, a little boy knelt at his bedside that night and prayed, "Dear God, we had a good time at church today--but I wish you had been there!" Ahh! Out of the mouths of babes. I know what you are thinking.... "God is always here with us at church." But is He? Do we invite the Lord of Lords into our assemblies? Is He automatically here with us? We, at times, become so steeped in traditions, that our worship is nothing less than appeasing our traditions. Our worship, many times, is more about pleasing our likes and wants than paying homage to God. Now, be honest, why are we really "going to church" on a Sunday or a Wednesday.

While Hebrews 10:25 encourages us to not forsake the meeting together "as some are in the habit of doing", it also reminds us to encourage one another and that is something that is much easier when we meet together. We certainly remember the admonitions to come together on the first day of the week to remember the sacrifice of our Savior on Calvary in partaking of the Lord's Supper. The first day of the week is not "showtime...not entertainment time...but a very special time of worship...of paying homage to God and of edifying each other. Sometimes we forget. May God help us to remember what our real purpose of gathering together is. "Come let us worship and bow down. Let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker."
