What a journey the past year has been! Pam and I appreciate the love that has been shown to us by the Baker Heights family through prayers, calls, texts, cards, food, and all the other ways you have shown us your love and concern.

Though the past year has been fraught with sickness and several deaths in our family, we are grateful for God's continual peace and presence we have experienced through all of it.

We have reminisced about one of our favorite German songs written by Dietrich Bonhoeffer in 1944 as he was imprisoned by the Nazis.

The song, "Von Guten Maechten Wunderbar Geborgen" (By Gentle Powers Lovingly Surrounded) is often sung at the beginning of a new year and aptly depicts our thoughts at the end of 2022 and the beginning of 2023.

Surrounded by such true and gentle powers.
So wondrously consoled and without fear,

Thus, will I spend with you these final hours
And then together enter a new year.

By gentle powers lovingly surrounded, with patience we'll endure,
Let come what may.

God is with us at night and in the morning
And certainly, on every coming day.

The worries of the old year still torment us.
We're troubled still by long and wicked days.

Oh Lord, give our frightened souls the healing

For which you've gifted us in so many ways.

May we all begin 2023 with the confident assurance that God's presence is with us, giving us hope and peace in whatever circumstances await us.
