GOOD MORNING

We've been working this last week to get ready for our Vacation Bible School. As people have been coming and going it has been interesting to hear their opinions and perspectives when it comes to VBS. Some focus on the cost and energy that event like this take up and others focus on the experience and opportunity. For me, VBS has always been about four things; ministering to children in the church, creating outreach to the surrounding communities, creating evangelism opportunities, and creating on opportunity for members to get involved. Most of the time there are several different ways to look at an event or ministry and we should be learning from each other's points of view.

We all have different perspectives on things. This also applies in other aspects of our lives. One person may see just another person looking for a handout where another person sees an opportunity to give. When hard times hit, one person may see it as misfortune while another views it as an opportunity to learn to rely on God. One person may view church as an obligation where another sees it as an opportunity to worship God with fellow Christians.

We all see the world differently based on our past experiences and knowledge. As Christians we are called to not only rely on our vision and how we see things, but also to rely on God's vision and how things really are. This may mean slowing down and taking a second look, but we need to see things through God's eyes and not our own. So, let's all slow down, look carefully, and see the situations around us the way Christians should.

In Him,

Luke Bower

BHCC Youth & Family Minister
