DO YOU WANT TO GET WELL?

Who would have thought it? Never would I have thought in a long, long time, that I would have had to have emergency hernia surgery. And then a big dose of pneumonia, on top of that. Well, it has certainly slowed me down...not the way I would have intended! I will say that my wife has been a real trooper through this...and she deserves a gold medal, to say the least.

But I got to thinking about a passage from John 5. The sick man, who had been sick for 38 years, and Jesus asks a simple question "Do you want to get well?" You wouldn't need to ask me twice! I can only imagine...38 years! No excuses! There is nothing more I want...than to get well, get my energy up...and move on with my life, which really belongs to Jesus! The decision is final...I want to be well. When you want healing from the Lord, something must be done. Surrender to His will. Obedience is not optional.

Whether it's financial stress, anxieties of many kinds, mental stress...you name it. No excuses. Submit your will to His will. Anywhere with Jesus, I can and will safely go. We will make it. Take up your bed and walk. I'll see you soon!
