GOOD MORNING

I do not know if it was because I was so desperately wanting the hurricane to head our direction and send some much-needed rain or if it was just in a particular mind set I was in, but the words from the new song we learned Sunday morning really stuck with me. "And like a flood, His mercy rains." I know that flooding for us in west Texas is just normally of the flash variety, but I think the song is talking about the kind of flood where it doesn't matter what kind of protection you take, you are going to get wet. A hurricane like flood. The kind that leaves everybody and everything wet.

God's mercy is like that, whether you are looking for it, want it, or running from it, it is going to find you. It pours down like rain for all, and we just have to be ready to receive it. In Isaiah 45:8 God says, "You heavens above, rain down my righteousness; let the clouds shower it down. Let the earth open wide, let salvation spring up, let righteousness flourish with it; I, the LORD, have created it." His mercy and grace is amazing, raining down on us. May we be ready so it may bear fruit and spring forth salvation.

The rest of the song says, "Unending love, Amazing grace. The earth shall soon dissolve like snow. The sun forbear to shine. But God, who called me here below will be forever mine, will be forever mine, you are forever mine." Let us live out God's amazing grace and let us point the world to the source of our love and forgiveness.
